Men, Supplies Parachuted to W. New Guinea

Reinforce Encircled Guerrilla Troops, Dutch Report Says

HOLLANDIA, West New Guinea (AP)—Four Indonesian transport planes supported by two Mitchell bombers dropped 40 or more paratroops and supplies into West New Guinea at dawn today to reinforce encircled Indonesian guerrillas, the Dutch reported. A communique said the bombers were driven off—apparently by naval guns—but that two C47 transport planes succeeded in dropping at least 40 paratroops across major streets. Two depart- ment stores were gutted by bottles of gasoline hurled by the com- mandos.

The two other transports dropped supplies to about 50 In- doesians who had parachuted into New Guinea April 27 and were bottled up by Dutch sol- diers, marines and Papuan volun- teers about 16 miles north of Fakfak, the communique said.

Area Sealed Off It was believed the paratroops came from Indonesian-held Ceran Island, about 120 miles southwest of New Guinea.

Dutch forces sealed off the area, halting all plane flights and refusing correspondents entry. The Dutch said the paratroops were dropped east of Fakfak, north of the village in the general vicinity where the first contingent was dropped April 27.

A spokesman said none of the four was shot down. There was no report of contact on the ground city except the center. The ap- parent intent was to warn the secret army—and to prod the French government into more vig- orous measures to crush the Eu- ropean terrorism.

In Jakarta, Indonesia's army chief of staff, Gen. Abdul Harris Nasution, declared today that armed Indonesian "volunteers" have been dropped in several parts of West New Guinea and that infiltration of the Dutch-held territory by Indonesian "youth" would not be stopped.

"We can take West Irian (West New Guinea) at any moment," he declared. "The Indonesian armed forces are prepared at any mo- ment to render assistance to our youth by air and sea."

McClellan Awaits Report From 2 Who Questioned Estes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators try today to fit to- gether the pieces of the Billie Sol Estes puzzle as Republicans made new charges of finagling and called for Secretary of Agricul- ture Orville L. Freeman to resign. Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Investiga- tions subcommittee that is explor- ing the complicated ventures of the indicted Texas financier, said he would meet with two subcom- mittee investigators who ques- tioned Estes in Texas. They ap- parently got little from him, Mc- Clellan said Monday.

The investigators—subcommit- tee counsel Donald O'Donnell and Paul E. Kamerick—also are ex- pected to brief McClellan on re- ports of other investigators trying to spade up evidence in Texas on Estes' wheeling and dealing and any profitable connections he may have had with government officials.

"Silence" Assailed Meanwhile, Republicans in the Senate and House peppered the Agriculture Department and its chief with more stinging words.

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., called for Freeman's resignation in a Senate speech Monday. Allott also said the White House had maintained a "strange silence" about alleged influence deals link- ing Estes with Agriculture Depart- ment officials.

He and Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., charged that possibly criminal reprisal had been taken against people at the Agriculture Department who wanted to dis- close or investigate facts about Estes' deals.

Allott contended that the secre- tary's actions in the case have resulted in the coining of the word "Freemanized" to mean "white- washed or glossed over." He said the agency was too important to be tainted and sullied.

Disputed Mental Test Williams said a woman secre- tary in the department had been "railroaded" into a mental insti- tution.

Tito's Ex-Aide Convicted of Airing Secrets

BEograd (AP)—Mojvan Djilas, critic of Communism who was once President Tito's heir ap- parent, was back in prison today under sentence of eight years and eight months for disclosing state secrets and violating parole.

A three-judge tribunal convicted the former vice president at a closed one-day trial Monday.

Djilas, 51, was sentenced to five years for divulging state secrets in his new book "Conversations with Stalin," which is to be pub- lished in the United States later this month.

The court added three years and eight months to cover the unex- pired part of a nine-year term from which Djilas was paroled last year.

Judge's Comment Presiding Judge Modrag Ste- vovic said Djilas had disclosed plan. The stickers are meant to be pasted on doctors' bills.

Next Sunday afternoon, the pe- titions will be presented to Mr. Kennedy at a rally of 24,000 sen- ior citizens in New York's Mad- son Square Garden.

Literacy Test Bill Due to be Shelved

WASHINGTON (AP)—With all sides reasonably satisfied that political profit has been squeezed out of it, the Senate may shelve today the administration's voter literacy test bill.

Before members is a motion by Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana to put aside the mea- sure. If it prevails as expected on a roll call vote, that will be the end for civil rights legislation in the 87th Congress.

Politically, there was something for everyone in this outcome. Southern opponents could brag at home they had killed another civil rights bill by their filibuster- ing tactics. Advocates of the mea- sure could assure interested minor- ity voters they had done their best and would be back to try again.

Democrats and Republicans each could blame the other party for the lack of results.

WASHINGTON — The campaign to jam President Kennedy's medical care program through a reluctant congress turns into a nation- wide blitzkrieg this week.

Nothing quite like it has been seen since elderly devotees of the Townsend plan for old-age pensions stormed the country a genera- tion ago.

All week, squadrons of old folks will be knocking on doors and lined up outside factory gates and office entrances.

They'll be collecting signatures on petitions demanding passage of the President's bill to provide health care for the aged through social security.

Pressure Campaign Specially briefed shock troops will invade doctors' offices, pass- ing out mimeographed copies of the administration's bill.

"Most doctors have never even read the bill they're supposed to be fighting against," snorted one of the drive's sponsors.

Other normally sedate elders will man telephones or distribute stickers endorsing the President's plan. The stickers are meant to be pasted on doctors' bills.

Next Sunday afternoon, the pe- titions will be presented to Mr. Kennedy at a rally of 24,000 sen- ior citizens in New York's Mad- son Square Garden.

Defense Department Says Forces in Area Will be Built Up to 5,000 Men

Washington (AP)—President Kennedy today ordered 1,800 U. S. Marines into Thailand, and the defense de- partment said U. S. military forces there will be built to about 5,000 men.

The president's announcement made plain the U. S. forces will go into battle if the Communists in neighbor- ing Laos cross the Thai border.

"These forces are to help insure the territorial in- tegrity of this peaceful country," the president said of the dispatch of Marines to Thailand.

In a follow up to the President's announcement, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said the U. S. military force in Thailand would be given a new over- all command and beefed up to about 5,000 men.

The buildup will include the 1,000-man army battle group already in Thailand.

To this will be added the Ma- rine battalion of about 1,800 men, from the 7th fleet. The Marine contingent also will have its own technical air units.

Air Cover Provided Additionally, about 1,200 army forces from the Pacific area will be sent in. The Pacific air force will provide tactical units to give air cover to the army ground troops. Both the air force and marine cover to the army ground troops. The air units will be based in Thai- land.

Gen. Paul D. Harkins, now U.S. commander of the 6,000-man force in South Viet Nam, will be given the job of heading U.S. forces in both Thailand and South Viet Nam.

Kennedy said the sending of ad- ditional U.S. forces to Thailand was considered desirable "be- cause of recent attacks in Laos by Communist forces, and the subsequent movement of Commu- nist military units toward the bor- der of Thailand."

The President called a threat to Thailand a matter of grave concern to this country. But he said he wished to emphasize that the dispatch of U.S. forces to the southeast Asian nation is "a de- fensive act on the part of the United States" and completely consistent with provisions of the United Nations charter which re- cognizes that nations have an in- herent right to take collective measures for self defense.

Consulting SEATO Kennedy said that he had di- rected that the United Nations be notified of the actions this coun- try is taking. He said, too, that "We are in consultation with SEATO governments on the situ- ation."

Kennedy's announcement fol- lowed one in Bangkok by Premier Sarit Thanarat that Thailand and the United States had agreed to the stationing of U.S. troops in Thailand.

Kennedy said in his statement that there is no change in U.S. policy toward Laos, "which con- tinues to be the re-establishment of an effective cease-fire and prompt negotiations for a govern- ment of national union."

In advance of the White House announcement, there had been re- ports that Kennedy had informed congressional leaders at an early forenoon meeting that U.S. Ma- rines would begin landing in Thai- land within a matter of hours.

The President was understood to have told the bipartisan group in a 45-minute meeting that the primary purpose is to help defend

NEW YORK (AP)—Walter W. Heller, chairman of President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers, says the early 1962 economic pause is over and a sus- tained advance can be expected well into 1963.

Heller said he had no real ex- planation for the recent weakness in stock market prices.

West Germans, U.S. Reduce Differences

Talks Result In Agreement On Main Points

BONN, Germany (AP) — The United States and West Germany have reduced their differences to what they call "details," but informed sources said one detail is a key provision of U.S. proposals to the Soviet Union for a Berlin settlement.

A communique issued after a two-hour meeting between U.S. Ambassador Walter C. Döwling and Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Monday said the two nations were in "full agreement in all essential points."

More Talks

"There will be further talks over several details," the communique added. "It is the intention of both sides to remain in close touch."

Informants said disagreement continues to center on the U.S. proposal for East German representation on a 13-nation authority to control access routes to West Berlin.

The Bonn government, after seemingly rejecting the whole idea last week, once again says it favors the basic principles of an international authority but objects to East German participation. The West Germans fear that this would imply further international recognition of East Germany's Communist regime.

Adenauer also objected to inclusion of three neutral nations on the authority. He said this would give them control and place on them a responsibility they would not accept.

Some Disagreement

Informants said there was also disagreement over other points but further details were not disclosed. The communique said the meeting concerned U.S.-West German relations with "special consideration of the German-Berlin question, problems of European unity and the general world political situation."

President Kennedy ordered Döwling to call on Adenauer after the chancellor indicated at a Berlin news conference last week that he felt the U.S.-Soviet talks on Berlin should be broken off.

Publicly agitated, Kennedy at his news conference invited the West Germans to make their own proposals. It was understood that none have been made so far, but that West German counter-proposals could be expected soon.

Higher Support For Dairy Goods In Proposal

Senator Humphrey Introduces Bill For $3.40 Milk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., announced today the introduction of legislation proposing higher price supports for dairy products.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., was listed as a co-sponsor. The bill would authorize the secretary of agriculture to set price supports on "manufacturing" milk at $3.40 per hundred pounds for the current marketing year. Under existing law the secretary has set the price at $3.11 per hundred pounds, or 75 per cent of parity.

The bill also would call for a referendum in early 1963 of producers who market 5,000 pounds of milk or more a year, to vote on production controls. If two thirds of the producers approved of the bill's "supply-management" or control provisions, the secretary would be authorized to set the price supports "as near 90 per cent of parity as feasible," Humphrey's statement said.

Allow Reductions

The bill would allow for voluntary reductions of dairy production until April 1, 1963, he said. After that, supply-management provisions and producer allotments would be mandatory if approved by the referendum.

The legislation provides for surplus-reduction payments of up to $2.50 per hundredweight to farmers who would voluntarily agree to reduce their marketing below the 1961-62 level.

To qualify for the payments, dairy producers would have to cut production by at least 7.5 per cent of their 1961-62 output, but no more than 30,000 pounds a year. After April 1, 1963, surplus marketing fees of up to $2.75 per hundredweight would be assessed on all marketings in excess of the 1961-62 marketing level, if supply-management provisions are approved in the referendum.

Reduce Parity

"If supply-management provisions are not approved by the producer referendums, the minimum price support level for milk would be reduced by 5 per cent of parity each year through March, 1967, after which the minimum would be 50 per cent of parity," Humphrey said.

Humphrey said the legislation includes safeguards to permit entry into dairy farming by new producers and necessary expansion of dairy farms by established producers.

Expect Justice Back by Fall

Frankfurter Hopes To be on Bench by First of October

WASHINGTON (AP) — The betting among friends of Felix Frankfurter is that—barring some turn now unforeseen—the peppery judge will bounce back and take his seat on the Supreme Court again next Oct. 1.

The jurist, 79, is still at George Washington University Hospital, where he was taken April 5 after suffering what his physician called a brief interruption in normal blood flow to the brain.

The physician, Dr. George A. Kelsor Jr., said Monday that Frankfurter was "doing well." A friend of the justice went further and said "he is showing amazing progress."

Frankfurter has been receiving some friends in his hospital room and his long-crippled wife, the former Marion A. Denman of Springfield, Mass., has been taken in a wheelchair to see her husband.

Mrs. Frankfurter was stricken by arthritis more than eight years ago and requires around-the-clock care at the Frankfurter home in the Georgetown section of Washington.

The day after Frankfurter collapsed at his desk in the Supreme Court building it was announced that he would remain at the hospital "for a short period of rest."

Venezuelan Plane Forced to Land by Cuban Fighters

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—A Venezuelan transport plane returned Monday night after being forced to land in Cuba by two of the Fidel Castro regime's Russian-built MIG jet fighters.

The plane was returning from Miami, Fla., with cargo when the MIGs appeared.

Deadly Serious Game

Problems Pop Up at Simulated Orbit Try

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — If Astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter had been aboard his "Aurora 7" spacecraft on its latest simulated mission, he would not have completed his full three-orbit mission.

Smoke from an unknown source filled the capsule and began filtering into the pilot's pressure suit. In the Mercury control center at Cape Canaveral, Flight Director Christopher Craft assessed the troubles and decided the astronaut's life was in danger.

Aurora 7 was ordered back to earth after two orbits, instead of the intended three, and the capsule impacted in the Atlantic Ocean 45 miles from a waiting recovery ship.

Serious Game

The simulation was a game—a deadly serious game the world-wide Mercury control center played to sharpen its ability to direct Carpenter safely through space.

Carpenter did not participate in this simulation. His backup, Walter M. Schirra, "flew" the land-locked Aurora 7 during the launching phase, then personnel at tracking stations around the globe read the part written for the astronaut during the flight.

The Mercury team has played the game more than 40 times in preparation for Carpenter's flight, many times with Carpenter seated in the capsule now in place atop the Atlas booster rocket.

One more full dress rehearsal is scheduled Thursday in the final tuneup for Carpenter's space ride.

Dutch Minister Backs Self-Determination For West New Guinea

Indonesian Occupation May Bring Communism to Island, Lunz Says

BY PAUL GHALI
Chicago Daily News Service

THE HAGUE, Netherlands — In an exclusive 30-minute interview of the Fatherlands' plan, Lunz the Netherlands' Foreign Minister Joseph Lunz told me that the Dutch government was ready to lead Western New Guinea immediately toward independence but would never "surrender" it to Indonesia.

He obviously considers both France and the United States indispensable partners and allies of the Netherlands.

He praised President Kennedy for his efforts to help solve the New Guinea problem and De Gaulle for his understanding of the problems confronting the Netherlands.

He said he favored a policy of self-determination for West New Guinea.

Since 1946 the Dutch government has been preparing for the emancipation of West Guinea's 800,000 inhabitants, Lunz said.

Today the Dutch government is willing to transfer immediately its rights of sovereignty over West Guinea to an international body, namely the United Nations, and to contribute $35,000,000 yearly toward the cost of administering the country. The one condition on which the Dutch insists is that the United Nations allow the people self determination.

Key Factor

Britain's admission, he believes, is a key factor in any important progress toward Western Europe's economic or political unity.

These were the two most significant points to emerge in my 30-minute of informal conversation with the handsome six-foot-tall foreign minister.

Aside from his modern clothing, he looks like the men in the portraits of 17th and 18th century diplomats that adorn his office walls and the entrance halls of the bus-valding foreign ministry.

He has the same deep-set blue eyes, the same aquiline nose, the same expression of tenacity and confidence as did his predecessors by others in the field that the United States can put a man on the moon within 10 years.

Lunz asked me to sit in a comfortable armchair adjoining his "It will cost about $20 billion and spoke with the straightforwardness of a man aware of his byproducts of the lunar responsibilities and confident of the rightness of his policies," he told a University of Massachusetts Despite recent differences over audience.

Mr. Eisenhower on the Administration

Former President Eisenhower offered some good solid criticism of the Kennedy administration at a recent news conference. Speaking calmly and obviously without animosity, the former president said that the Kennedy administration is, in his opinion, making strenuous efforts to increase greatly the power of the executive branch of the government.

Mr. Eisenhower believes that the executive branch already has enormous power and he says generally the problem of the president is to use this power "judiciously, temperately and wisely."

His reference is to the dispute between President Kennedy and the steel companies and particularly to the president's harsh clampdown on the companies when several of them had proposed an increase in the price of steel. When U. S. Steel finally was compelled to back down, Mr. Kennedy became a great hero to many people of rather shallow political thinking. Many of them could see him as a shining knight who had saved the people from an increase in the price of steel and probably from a new round of inflation. However, the problem was not so simple. All businessmen know that we cannot have free enterprise unless business management has the right, as it has the duty, to set the price of its product. The duty of management is to provide sufficient funds to pay the customary expenses of the business, to provide a fair income for the stockholders and to provide in addition sufficient funds to keep the company's plants modern and competitive. It is impossible for business to function if it does not have this right.

Mr. Kennedy apparently is well aware of the true situation. Since his "great victory" over the steel producers he has at every opportunity spoken softly and indictated a desire to have business proceed as usual. However, there are indications that many important figures in business, as well as literally millions of small investors, were thoroughly frightened by the picture of the administration imposing its will upon a segment of business without a hearing or any other act that might even remotely suggest "due process of law."

In his interview, Mr. Eisenhower added this thought:

"It has long been my judgment that the real threat to liberty in this republic will come not from any sudden, calculated assault; rather, a threat of our liberties will be primarily found in a steady erosion of self-reliant citizenship, and in the excessive power of concentration resulting from the lodging of more and more decisions in an ever-growing federal bureaucracy."

Mr. Eisenhower came to the press conference from a meeting with Republican Congressional leaders. It is quite certain that the Congressional leaders were eagerly seeking some means of forwarding the Republican cause and possibly of winning some votes from the Democrats. However, Mr. Eisenhower spoke to the press with the air of a man well aware of the President's problem and inclined to be friendly toward him. It should not have been necessary for Mr. Eisenhower to disclaim any personal animosity toward the President or to state, as he jokingly did, that he had no wish to return to the White House.

It is sincerely to be hoped that President Kennedy will give close attention to Mr. Eisenhower's words. If he does, we are sure that in the long run he will come to understand that Mr. Eisenhower's advice is sound and much more valuable to him than that of some of his political friends who have been cheering him on in this brush with Big Business.

USDA Celebrates Centennial

It was just 100 years ago today that President Lincoln scrawled his signature on a short, hand-written document. As he blotted it, a new department had been established—the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Today, a century later, the United States is both enjoying and in some ways, enduring, the results of this legislation. The Agriculture Department has grown into a vast service, touching the life of almost every farmer and indirectly influencing the life of almost every city dweller.

Through research, experimental stations, extension services, credit facilities and soil conservation, the department has helped make American agriculture the leader in the world. In fact, so much has efficiency been improved that the biggest problem facing American agriculture today is that of gigantic surpluses—a contrast to the Communist-dominated countries of the world.

The American public also has benefited. The people of the country are the best fed in the world's history—and at a lower proportional cost than in any other country. The USDA helps protect the consumer by inspecting agricultural products and grading them.

The American farmer of today is one of the most efficient producers. He has obtained this efficiency because of "know-how" — know-how in farm machines, in new seeds, in fighting insects and diseases.

Much of this efficiency has come as either a direct or indirect result of agricultural research carried on by the department or in its branches.

This knowledge is then imparted to the farmers through the cooperative extension service, another branch of the department.

When President Lincoln signed the bill in 1862, each farm worker was producing enough food and fiber for five people. When President Kennedy signed the bill proclaiming the centennial, each farm worker was growing food and fiber for 26 people. And this is increasing.

What the future will bring, no one knows. But it is quite certain that the United States Department of Agriculture will play a large role in developments of the future.

David Johnson Retreats From Moscow

Some of Europe's outstanding military leaders and some of its strongest armies, have suffered great privations in retreats from Moscow. David Johnson of Philadelphia is not a military man but he, his wife and their four-year-old twin sons did as well as anyone in getting safely out of Moscow. They have made it back to the United States but although they lost all of their savings in the process of escaping from Communism they now are in position to start over again with a new understanding and appreciation of America.

Johnson, who is described as a railroad worker, supported Communist causes in Philadelphia for the past eight years. He never was a card-carrying American Communist but was subjected to all of the vile propaganda that is spewed out by American Communists. He was well informed on how the workers produce all of the wealth in America but must give up most of it to the wealthy who are able to exploit them under the capitalist system.

Because he was really sold on the benefits Communism was said to be bringing to mankind he decided to take his family to the Soviet Union and settle there. To do so he sold all of his possessions and purchased tickets to Russia. He now says that he made a dreadful mistake. "I misjudged the whole situation. I am now going home to settle down and start all over again."

He was disillusioned on his trip to Moscow. On April 29, he and his family sailed from London on the Soviet liner Baltika for Leningrad. He traveled overland from Leningrad to Moscow by train. What the Johnsons saw along the way quickly discouraged them. They saw people looking ill-fed and generally badly clothed and noticed a good many drunks abroad.

On the rail journey from Leningrad to Moscow, he saw a good many people living in broken down box cars on railway sidings. He said he was stopped several times by people who wanted to buy the clothes off his back.

For most Americans it will be difficult to understand how any intelligent American workman could be taken in by Russian propaganda. However, the Johnsons are living evidence that some people are so deceived. It is most fortunate for all concerned that they were able to get a good look at life within the USSR. Too bad more people with similar opinions cannot make the journey. However, the Johnsons can do a great deal toward enlightening their friends and many others whom they never have met on the true picture of Russia.

Catholics Start Teen Activity; Terror's Den Tells of Program

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The Catholic Activities Council of Appleton held a meeting at Xavier High School Tuesday evening, May 8. I attended this meeting and it was indeed heart-warming and encouraging to see how many good far-sighted parents are keenly interested in making an effort to channel the leisure time of our youth.

The time is long past when parents can afford to fall back on the excuse that "we didn't need all that stuff when we were kids." These children of ours, in general, have more leisure time than ever before in history. Modern living has provided that leisure time. Man-made conveniences have eliminated many of the routine chores and we must realize that this free time can and should be channeled to good advantage.

Our teen-agers are still in the formative stage and C.A.C. hopes to aid in the development of their moral, spiritual, cultural and physical growth. The Y.M.C.A. has been doing a fine job along these lines for a good many years but we cannot expect them to take care of all our youth. Hence the need for an organization to reach further afield.

At the present time our efforts are limited and there must be a modest beginning with a summer recreational program. But there is reason to believe that our good civic and social-minded citizens of this area will lend their whole-hearted support to further development of a Council that will help to keep Appleton a happy, healthy wholesome place in which to rear our families. It is indeed worthy of a United Community effort.

Medicare Discussion Commended

Editor, Post-Crescent:

First, I wish to congratulate you on your wonderful, unbiased presentation of the facts as they come to you. It is evident that you are willing to present all the sides of a story.

It would be good if the public were informed that all the members of the medical team — namely doctors, nurses and druggists, are not opposed to the Anderson-King Bill for medicare for the aged.

In a recent R.N. publication (a nurse's monthly) there was an article describing the stand of the American Nurse's Association in regards to the King-Anderson Bill. They are 100 per cent in favor of seeing the bill passed.

We nurses are salaried people too, and having a first-hand view we are acutely aware of the inevitability of a lengthy hospitalization following retirement. Practically all the diseases affecting elderly people require long hospital attendance and even longer convalescence. Strokes, heart attacks, cancer, T.B., arthritis, fractures, etc. are usually in the hospital for a minimum of 30-60 days—usually longer.

We are also aware that besides having families to rear and educate we will, probably be faced with the possibility of caring for infirm parents. Very few people can afford to carry their hospitalization insurance after retirement when it is most needed: $12.50 a year is a mighty small fee to pay for medical insurance that could probably save a lot of us from the necessity of taking the bankruptcy oath.

Thank you also, Mr. Ray Wiese. I have already written to Rep. John Byrnes, and Rep. Wilbur Mills, Wash. D.C. — asking that they support this God-inspired bill.

Appleton

Editor, Post-Crescent:

You would think from all the articles about teen-agers that the kids didn't have anywhere to go. There has been only one reference to the fact we have a Youth Center in Appleton. Our Terrors Den Youth Center at the YMCA is the oldest youth center in the state and probably the biggest. When the Youth Center was started in 1945, there was only one high school so it was called the Terrors Den. It is now called "The Den" because we recently amended our constitution so that a student in any senior high school is eligible to join. We now have a membership of 620 from the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. This month the 9th graders are eligible to join and we usually have about 175 added to our number at that time.

The Den is open every afternoon from 4:00 to 9:30 Monday thru Thursday, 4:00 to 11:30 on Friday and 1:00 to 5:00 Saturdays. On Friday nights a crowd of 300 to 500 makes it necessary to open the gym.

In the Den we have booths where the kids can visit, listen or dance to juke box music and eat light refreshments. Ping-pong tables, pocket billiards, checkers and chess are available. We also have a TV set.

A Den membership of $2.50 per year entitles a member to the use of the Den facilities only, as a Den member is not a member of the YMCA. On Friday nights Den members pay an extra quarter and non-members 50 cents. We have good adult supervision and we have a Den Governing Board of twelve members who are elected by the Den membership.

Tom Klenz, Director of the Den, tells me that these same facilities are open to Junior High age kids the second and fourth Saturday nights from 7:00 to 10:00. These nights were scheduled to alternate with other teen-age dances in the city. The YMCA Youth Committees are considering a more extended program at this time.

I feel I'm speaking for the members of the Den Governing Board when I say we appreciate having the Den. It may not be serving all the kids of Appleton but it certainly is open to any senior high school student who wants a place to go.

Looking Backward

Details on New Orleans Victory

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Motor for May 15, 1862.

The glorious intelligence accumulates at such a rapid rate that we cannot hope to do it justice.

From New Orleans, we learn that the forts below were attacked by our fleets on April 18th. The action lasted six days and five nights. Our vessels were debauched with mud and rigged up with branches, effectually baffling the rebel aim.

The gunboats ran the terrible fire of the forts on the 24th, and walked into the terrible fleet above. Hollin's ram Manassas was sent to "Davy Jones' Locker." The Varuna, Capt. Boggs, covered herself with glory from stern to stern. She came in contact with a perfect nest of gunboats and made short work in destroying six of them. She was then found on fire, which was extinguished with difficulty.

Just then, the iron-clad Webster ran into her twice and sank her, but not before receiving the salute that blew the Webster up in return. The squadron saved the crew. Seven of the squadron's gunboats and three transports were either sunk or destroyed.

On the 25th, two batteries near the city of New Orleans were silenced after a short fight and the whole squadron anchored opposite the city. Two strong batteries, nine miles above, were taken on the 26th and the forts surrendered on the 28th.

Capt. Boggs has been assigned to the Juniata at Philadelphia. The Mayor and Aldermen of New Orleans have been impris-

GOP Has Good Men For Lesser State Offices

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Virtually obscured in the increasingly competitive Republican gubernatorial campaign is the fact that the Republican convention delegates who will assemble at Milwaukee two weeks hence will have a greater variety of choices for the lesser nominations on their state party ticket.

Four young lawyers have invited the delegates to appraise their worth as endorsed candidates for the nomination for attorney general. They are George Thompson, the nominee in 1960 who lost to Atty. Gen. John Reynolds, Robert Marotz, assembly chief clerk and former assembly speaker, Robert Shier of Jefferson County, and George Greisch of Appleton, the latter former district attorneys of their home districts.

There are three announced candidates for the lieutenant governorship place on the ticket. Not necessarily in the order of their strength, they are Jack B. Olson of Wisconsin Dells, and Sen. Gerald Lorge of Outagamie and Waupaca Counties and Sen. Leo P. O'Brien of Brown county.

THE OUTLOOK

The orthodox view at the moment is that Marotz is probably the favorite for convention backing for the nomination for attorney general.

His most important asset, it may be supposed, is that he has served in intimate and friendly association with a couple of hundred of legislators and former legislators, lobbyists and others connected with the legislative process and assorted politicians who will be sitting in the convention hall and can be expected to give him a boost in the respective county caucuses.

But the outlook is not so certain that there will be any big wagers made upon it. Thompson will have some advantage in having won the nomination two years ago. Sometimes such things are decided on impulse or whim, according to the impression that an aspirant delivers when he is given a few moments on the platform to speak for himself.

Reynolds and other recent occupants have shown that it is a far more important office than twelve members who are elected by the Den membership.

Tom Klenz, Director of the Den, tells me that these same facilities are open to Junior High age kids the second and fourth Saturday nights from 7:00 to 10:00. These nights were scheduled to alternate with other teen-age dances in the city. The YMCA Youth Committees are considering a more extended program at this time.

I feel I'm speaking for the members of the Den Governing Board when I say we appreciate having the Den. It may not be serving all the kids of Appleton but it certainly is open to any senior high school student who wants a place to go.

Dave Hem, President, Den Governing Board is often realized, both with respect to the operation of the state government, and with respect to the opportunities it presents for the political promotion of the man who possesses it. It is perhaps regrettable, therefore, that this competition has had only sidelong attention from the politicians and the public thus far.

The problem is similar in the selection for the lieutenant governorship. Lorge and O'Brien have plausible claims, based upon their legislative service. The principal and literal duty of the lieutenant governor is to preside over the senate. But Olson is perhaps the favorite — of those announced aspirants for the endorsement — not only because he has promoted himself over a long period, but because there are many pragmatists in the organization who feel that an ethnically popular nominee would be a good investment — all other things being equal.

Sen. O'Brien has told party rallies that he is the only candidate for the office who wants it for its own sake. His rivals, he says with apparent amusement but also possibly with some indignation, want it as a stepping stone to better things in the later development of their careers. The Green Bay senator is doubtless right, but the complaint is not altogether relevant.

It may be doubted that anyone ever before ran for lieutenant governor of Wisconsin, or of any other state, with the idea that he would be content with that and would not seek to move up the ladder later.

Indeed, what the constitutional fathers had in mind was that the lieutenant governor should be a kind of stand-in for the governor. The senate could just as well choose its own presiding officer.

There remains, meanwhile, the possibility that the Republicans will put up as their endorsed candidate for the lieutenant governorship someone else who is not now declared as a candidate, and pass over the lot of the declared hopefuls, to their chagrin.

Four miles of 34,500-volt transmission line, in the way of the new construction will be removed, John McLean, power company representative, said. Estimated cost of the removal is $19,700.

The line will bring steam-generated electricity from Milwaukee and hydroelectric power from the north to the Fox Cities.

Teachers Receive Grants for Summer Study in Journalism

Three Fox Cities area teachers have been awarded fellowships for summer study in journalism by the Newspaper Fund.

This is the fourth year of the grants, which are made possible through gifts of the Wall Street Journal. A total of 465 high school and junior college teachers in 49 states received the fellowships for this summer.

Sister M. Eileen Grace Beaton, O.S.F., a Xavier High School teacher, will use her fellowship to take a seminar at Marquette University.

Kenneth A. Biendarra, who teaches at Oshkosh High School, will attend the University of Wisconsin. The Rev. Benjamin T. Machin, O. Praem., who teaches at Abbot Pennington High School, West DePere, will take a seminar at Iowa State University.

New Bill Won't Aid Dairymen, Laird Indicates

Present Surpluses, Incomes Will Not Be Changed at All

BY FRANCES McKUSICK
Post-Crescent Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON—The dairy section of the new farm bill, reported out of the House agriculture committee last week will not accomplish anything for the Wisconsin dairy farmer, Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R. Marshfield, said today.

In the opinion of the congressman, the new section will neither increase the farmers' incomes, nor decrease the present surpluses.

"In the first place, the dairy Union St., apparently escaped in-plan incorporated in this farm jury when the bicycle he was riding collided with a car at N. Un-because it will only last one year," Laird complained. He explained that the bill authorizes payment of $2.50 for every hundred pounds of milk which the right side of a car driver by a farmer produced compared Russell Peterson, 30 Sherman with last year, after the first 10 Place. Police took Weiner home, per cent of the production has where he was to be examined by been deducted. In other words, a doctor.

Hard Shell on Rats

New Development May Aid Arthritis Cure

BY ARTHUR J. SNIDER
Chicago Daily News Service

CHICAGO — A leading Montreal scientist has caused rats to form a covering of skin as hard as an oyster shell, step out of it like a snake or crab, and grow a new one.

Inducement of molting by mammals was accomplished by Dr. Hans Selye of the University of Montreal by use of a one-two punch. He first injects a "sensitizing" drug and follows this up after a specific interval with a second or "challenging" drug.

The unprecedented achievement is no stunt.

It is part of an experimental program that could lead to insight into arthritis, hardening of the arteries, hardening of the skin, kidney stones and scores of other diseases in which deposit of calcium plays a part.

On the basis of work with thousands of animals, Dr. Selye has offered a new theory, called "Calciphylaxis." A University of Chicago physician says it is "sure to have an impact on medicine comparable to his earlier concept of stress."

Book Published

In a foreword to Dr. Selye's book, "Calciphylaxis," published this week by the University of Chicago Press, Dr. Franklin McLean, University of Chicago professor-emeritus writes:

"It is given to very few investigators in modern medicine to discover a new phenomenon, to describe it and to characterize it, punch" in the one-two series, or thus Dr. Selye has done by his introduction of calciphylaxis as an entirely new biologic concept."

A variety of drugs to sensitize animals has been discovered. Dr. Selye has found vitamin D and parathyroid hormone to be especially effective.

Injection of the sensitizer must be followed with the challenger in 24 to 48 hours or the sensitization wears off.

The challenger, says Dr. McLean, could be something as "harmless" as plucking a few hairs, pinching the skin, or administering a common and seemingly innocuous substance as the white of an egg."

Depending on the site of injection, conditions of dosage and time-table, the hardening of tissue can be made to occur all over the body or in a specific tissue.

For example, Dr. Selye has caused the ear of the rat to calcify and break off by injections in the neck artery.

What does this theory mean to human beings suffering from various types of calcifying diseases?

No Proof

Dr. Selye emphasizes there is no definite proof yet that any spontaneous disease of man depends upon calciphylaxis.

But if his theory is borne out, it might mean that arthritis victims are first sensitized by a drug or other environmental factor, then challenged within 48 hours by a second factor.

While human beings are apparently exposed to all sorts of sensitizers, the fact that arthritis does not occur more often probably is due to our escaping the "second punch" in the one-two series, or thus Dr. Selye has done by his introduction of calciphylaxis as an entirely new biologic concept."

Events must occur in proper sequence. As Dr. McLean states, it is a "relationship in time and space."

Strongman of Europe?

De Gaulle Can't Stop Slaughter in Algeria

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Al-gerian mystery is not how the Secret Army Organization is able to kill Moslems in bunches every day but why French President de Gaulle has refused even to help, although this might not be join the United States in discussing a Berlin settlement with American efforts with Russia.

Through months of murder, committed on the public streets, the French army in Algeria has arrested a few leaders of the secret army but has never made any wholesale effort to crush it. It has stood by while the murders piled up. In these months, while the secret assassins slaughtered their people, the Moslems refrained from fighting back. They feared it would eventually involve them with the French army and destroy their hopes of independence.

They finally reached the breaking point Monday after scores of their women had been shot down, and cut loose.

Fought French
Until last March in Algeria, Moslem nationalists fought the French more than seven years for their independence.

In 1958 when De Gaulle's predecessors in office headed toward a settlement with the Moslems, the regular army joined the settlers in revolt against the government in Paris.

The thought of losing Algeria, the last big remnant of French colonialism, seemed too overwhelming for the French troops who had seen their empire cut away from Lebanon, Syria, Tunisia, Morocco, and Indochina.

It was after this that De Gaulle took over. In time, last March, he worked out a settlement with the Moslems, which was intended to keep Algerian links with France but let the Algerians choose independence.

After the history of their years of revolt—and the fact that they outnumbered the European settlers 9 to 1—there was no doubt the Moslems would choose independence.

Vote Planned
The decision was to be made in a referendum about next September. The secret army, which had already turned Algeria into its own private slaughterhouse, redoubled its efforts.

Any head of a competent state might be expected to act against organized murder. De Gaulle's reluctance to do so doesn't speak well for the ability of the French government, under him or someone else, to control its destiny.

It has been said he fears that an attempt to use French troops against their countrymen among the assassins might cause an army revolt on behalf of the settlers who don't want the Moslems to run the country.

But this is one more example in a sorry history of French inadequacies, both at home and in its former colonies. For example: the endless succession of French governments since the war.

Another example: the French disaster in Indochina where it had practically no support among the people and where the French

Stronger Laws For Chemicals Asked in Report

Poisons for Control Of Insects Must Be Regulated

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Stronger laws for the regulation of the use of chemical poisons for the destruction or control of insect pests were urged today by the head of the entomology department of the University of Wisconsin.

Prof. R. J. Dicke, chairman of a special committee named by the governor a year ago to investigate the relation of chemical poisons to forestry and wildlife, presented his plan to the Natural Resources Committee of State Agencies.

New regulations would require action by the legislature and the committee presumably will present such legislation to the next session that will convene in 1963.

Permit Law
The Dicke report noted that there is a permit law on the books now, but that it does not apply to the use of pest poisons on agricultural lands. It said also that even the present restrictions are not always enforced strictly enough to protect the wildlife interest.

Dicke proposed the creation of a supervisory pesticide review board and an advisory committee chosen from available experts on the subject.

Report States
His report said the state needs a "means by which wildlife will be protected wherever possible without undue restriction or economic loss for our agricultural, forest, or resort industry, and without a reduction in the aesthetic value and recreational utilization of our natural resources."

The problem of pesticides, herbicides and similar chemical substances, in an era of rapidly enlarging use of new chemical materials, has concerned nature lovers and conservationists in recent years. In some of the cities of the state the use of such chemical controls for plant diseases and insect pests has brought complaints about the accompanying destruction of song-birds.

army was crushed by the Communists.

In some smaller and less pretentious nations this record might not have much significance.

But De Gaulle, the difficult ally, is the one who has visions of France as a leader of the West and the strongest power in Western Europe.

But this will Lawrence is most important is a program to encourage business operations so as to generate more tax money — more receipts from corporations and individuals.

"This is evil fiction. It never has worked. It is not working now, and I can prove it. It will not work in the future, and it is dangerous to rely on it. A prudent government would balance its budget by stopping nonessen- tia expenditure. This is not being done. The hard fact is that continuing deficits ultimately end in bankruptcy. When a nation goes bankrupt, its assets are not taken over and sold to satisfy its debts. Its money becomes worth- less. Its economy disintegrates: its form of government falls and changes."

The Virginia senator points out, too, that previous federal deficits have been "a prime factor in inflation which continues to reduce the value of the dollar."

What this means is that since 1939 the dollar has gone down from 100 cents to 46.1 cents as of March of this year. Sen. Byrd says he suspects that, when the figures come in, it will be found that the dollar has gone down further in April and May. He adds:

"In short, our situation is char- acterized by increasing debt, con- tinuing deficits, and threatening inflation. Such a situation does not inspire confidence at home or abroad, but we need confidence in the dollar now as we never needed it before."

Red Germans Face Economic Bondage

Production Being Geared To Russian Requirements

BY DAVID M. NICHOL
Chicago Daily News Service

BERLIN — Soviet plans appar- ently now call for the virtual eco- nomic annexation of East Ger- many with its 17,000,000 inhabit- ants.

Already cut off politically from the rest of the country, the Com- munist - ruled region is to be geared to the economic require- ments and resources and the ap- preciable lower living standards of the Soviet Union.

The move has been foreshadow- ed ever since East Germany's party boss Walter Ulbricht went hat in hand to Soviet Premier Nik- ita Khrushchev at the end of February and came back with promises of credits to the equiv- alent of more than $400,000,000. But the ties apparently are to be much closer than Ulbricht has dared so far to tell his own peo- ple.

Looks Toward Russia
He has warned them only that they must work harder, spend less, invest more in their state- owned industries, and sever them- selves entirely from any depend- ence on imports from West Ger- many.

Over the weekend some hither- to secret portions of Ulbricht's re- port to East Germany's central committee on his Moscow nego- tiations have come to light here. As reported by West German officials who say they have seen the full text, Ulbricht said the planning figures for East Ger- many in the future will be in- corporated directly into the economie planning of the Soviet Union. To meet these Soviet require- ments, which are primarily for machinery, Ulbricht said, East Germany's consumer goods in- dustry and its food industry must be held near the 1962 levels for an indefinite period. Lower Living Standards Even on paper East Germany's living standards now are 30 to 40 per cent below those in West Germany. In recent weeks East Germans have complained that even basic items of food and con- sumers goods have become scarce or almost impossible to obtain. One West Berlin expert com- pares the proposed arrangement with that at the end of the war when the Soviet Union drained off quantities of every kind of industrial production from East Germany as "reparations."

The difference from the im- mediate postwar period, however, is important. At that time West Germany, with Western allied as- sistance, supplied much of the raw materials and half-finished goods on which East Germany's industry depends.

No Accounting Given
The Soviets refused to give any accounting of these "deliveries" from current production to the Western powers. In effect it was the United States that was pay- ing "reparations" to its wartime Soviet ally.

To halt this was one of the main reasons for the West Ger- man currency reform in 1948, which the Soviets now argue was the cause of their blockade of Berlin and the increasingly com- plete division of the country.

The new arrangement will re- quire some very clever negotia- tion on Ulbricht's part. He is now in the midst of a campaign to convince his own people and the rest of the world that East Ger- many is "sovereign and independ- ent" and must be recognized as such.

Ulbricht, schooled in Moscow during the war years, was sent back to Germany even before the surrender of Berlin to begin the building of a Communist ma- chine. He has been the Kremlin's willing administrator ever since and has had the longest tenure of any of the satellite leaders.

Solution to Delinquency Is in the Home

Rev. Gammelin Says Parents Must Teach, Give Good Example

Stressing the importance of the home in the development of the personality and character of children Sunday, the Rev. W. H. Gammelin of Zion Lutheran Church pointed out the influence that was exerted by Eunice, a God-fearing mother, on her son Timothy.

Timothy, a co-Rev. Gammelin laborer of the Apostle Paul, was a young man who, because of his faith in Christ, was living a life of self-sacrificing service to his God and to his fellowmen. The fact that he was a sincere, up-right young man who revered God and loved his fellowmen did not happen by chance or accident, according to the instruction that Pastor Gammelin said. The development of personality and character was the direct result of the instruction which he had given and children rightly honor received from his mother as a child in his home, he said.

Delinquency Problem
Pastor Gammelin pointed out that a great deal of time and thought is being given to the problem of stemming the rising tide of juvenile delinquency. Various means and programs are being proposed, many of which are good as far as they go. "However the real solution lies in the home itself; that is the

Democratic Leader Lauds County Chief

WAUPACA — The Waupaca County Democratic party chairman, Howard Hazen, Manawa, was singled out by Patrick Lucey, state chairman, for achievement in the number attending the Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner at Milwaukee. An Appleton delegate at the dinner said Lucey commended Hazen and the county organization for having about 27 people at the dinner. The goal was about 15. Hazen is county and district chairman.

Negro Dancer Gets Position In Opera Chorus
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Miss Pelagio Green, 19, a college sophomore, is the first Negro ever selected for the St. Louis Municipal Opera's dancing chorus. "I almost fainted when my name was called," said Miss Green, daughter of a mail carrier, who is known to her friends as "P.G." She was selected yesterday on her fourth attempt. "I realize now I wasn't good enough the first two times and last year I was overweight. So I went on a spartan diet and slimmed down," she said. Miss Green, who is majoring in English at Harris Teachers College in St. Louis, has ambitions to perform on Broadway. "I figure if I can make it here, I can make it in New York," she said.

The AMA's spokesman, Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, has purchased a half-hour over the NBC TV network the Monday after the president's Madison Square Garden speech to answer him.
Meanwhile, a small group of doctors has broken away from the AMA and formed a "Physicians Committee for Health Care for the Aged Through Social Security."
They have opened an office in Washington, and hired Mrs. Daniel Goldy, wife of a commerce department official, to run it.
The physicians committee is concentrating its fire on other doctors, although it has also sent appeals to every congressman and senator.
One of its members, Dr. Benjamin Spock, the well-known baby doctor, has had a series of articles printed in nearly 1,000 small daily and weekly newspapers.
Others have given speeches or appeared on TV panel shows.
Money is being collected to finance an ad campaign in medical journals. The White House is engaged in the medical care blitz.

In Detroit, Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.), chairman of the senate committee on aging, and United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther will share the stage at Masonic Temple.
Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall will appear at Kansas City. White-uniformed nurses from the American Nurses Association will pass out more petitions in the hall.
The following week, legions of oldsters will descend on Washington for the "first annual convention" of their new organization—nine-year-old brother, Norman, the National Association of Senior Citizens for Health Care Through Social Security.
The association claims 650,000 members in 700 "senior citizens" or "Golden Ring" clubs around the country.
Between business sessions, determined convention delegates will call on congressmen.

Schweikher's voluminous presentation of promotion for the Sunday edition included a description of his efforts to inform and entice merchants, carrier boys and most of all, the readers.
To inform, merchants, be used special breakfasts and mailers. To inform carrier boys, be used special plant tours, barbecues, sales meetings and brochures before the first issue went to press.
To inform the reader, he wrote and aired radio and television spots, wrote news stories and advertisements for the paper, designed auto pennants and buttons used by employees. A special letter from the editor was sent to all subscribers.
Schweikher included a copy of the Post-Crescent's first Sunday paper in his presentation.
Special Promotion
The retail advertising promotion award was won for mailers to merchants announcing special merchandising promotions, like the Post-Crescent's bridal, Christmas and fashion editions. Retail promotion also included a planning calendar listing significant dates for merchants throughout the year, a special brochure describing the Business and Industry Edition, a booklet on the standards the Post-Crescent requires in its advertising. The judges especially pointed to advertisements in the Post-Crescent and a color brochure fostering the use of color by advertisers.
In his presentation, Schweikher likened Post-Crescent executives to the Roundtable of King Arthur. All his commentary was made in Old English.
Other newspapers to win more than one promotion award were the Philadelphia Bulletin, with two awards; the Philadelphia Inquirer, with three; and the New York Times, the Minneapolis Star Tribune, the Norfolk Virginian Pilot & Ledger Star, the Montreal Star and the San Rafael Independent - Journal, with two.

Kennedy Sends 1,800 Marines Into Thailand

Thailand against the Red threat from neighboring Laos.
Informants said Kennedy stressed that his primary policy still is to get a peaceful settlement in Laos itself.
The main thrust of his diplomacy at the moment, officials said, is to get the cease-fire restored in that Southeast Asian nation and revive negotiations for a coalition government.
House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said after the White House conference that the situation in Southeast Asia is "certainly very difficult."
No Commitments
As to the nature of the discussion with the President, he would only say "There were no commitments asked and none given."
The U.S. and Thai governments, it was learned, have fully agreed on the landing of a Marine combat detachment from the force of about 2,000 men aboard an aircraft carrier task force off the Thai coast.
The task force was believed to be operating well up in the Gulf of Siam.
Informants said an announcement of the operation was expected here late today. The Marines are being added to an Army battle group of 1,000 men already in Thailand as a result of recent Southeast Asia Treaty Organization military maneuvers.
The developments came in the face of a statement in Moscow that the United States was "taking another dangerous step fraught with serious consequences" in Laos by concentrating forces in the Southeast Asian area.
That was part of an article in Pravda, the Communist party paper.
It reinforced a suspicion among Western diplomats that the Soviet Union is giving the Communists in the area something like a free hand in the Laos area and will not back U.S. and British efforts to restore the cease-fire.
In addition to reassuring the nervous Thai leadership at Bangkok, Kennedy had two other purposes in view in rushing U.S. forces toward Southeast Asia, spearheaded by the 7th Fleet task force.
One was to make the presence

Railway Workers Strike in France
PARIS (AP)—Railway workers went on strike throughout most of France today, paralyzing the state-operated rail system.
In Paris, many city bus drivers also struck and several subway lines halted during the morning rush hour. Only about 10 per cent of the familiar green and white Paris buses were operating.
The strike was called for 24 hours, beginning at 4 a.m. Long-distance trains en route at the time continued to their destinations.
The transport workers are seeking a shorter week and other benefits that the government has refused. More strikes in nationalized industries and the administration are scheduled later this week.
of American power felt in the region to offset the diplomatic reverses arising out of local defeats of government forces in Laos by the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.
The other has been to get U.S. forces into position to move quickly into Laos itself if Kennedy decided that step was necessary.
Halleck said Kennedy did a lot of the talking. "I didn't say a word," Halleck said.
Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, another of the leaders attending the meeting, brushed by newsmen without comment.

Menstrual Cramps

Have Various Causes

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
Dear Dr. Molner: I have periodic cramps every month, and have ever since I can remember. I am 25 and married.

I am enclosing an article I read in a magazine about cutting the presacral nerve near the uterus. Is this article true?

My doctor said if I have children the cramps will stop. My husband and I would like children but have not had any in five years. There is nothing wrong with either of us; why can't we have children?—MRS. G.L.

The article is true, but cutting a nerve should be the last resort. I always advise the least cutting necessary—and the least medicine that will fully do what is required.

Causes of menstrual cramps are varied: glandular, nutritional, even mechanical, as narrowing or plugging of the cervical canal. Occasionally a D. & C. (dilation and curettage, or surgical scraping of the uterus) helps. Sometimes use of one of the newer diuretics, to rid the system of excess fluid before the period, gives marked relief.

Simple pain-killers, tranquilizers, anti-spasmodics all have succeeded in many cases. (But narcotics should be avoided, for the obvious reason: The risk of addiction.)

It is likewise true that many a young woman, plagued by cramps, has found them to disappear after becoming pregnant. Thus there are quite a few known remedies for cramps, and while there is no way of predicting in advance which will be best, it is not too difficult to have your doctor try different ones in rotation.

As to your failure to have children, it would seem that after five years a fertility problem does, indeed, exist. It isn't by any means necessarily a matter of general health, although a metabolic check is advisable for both of you.

Going beyond that, it is my considered advice to start with husband, since a sperm count is an uncomplicated procedure, far easier than checking the various gynecological aspects of the wife.

In one-third or more of infertility cases, the sperm count shows the husband to be at fault. Too many husbands are reluctant to consider this "affront to their virility," but the most rugged of males can have some interference without knowing it, and sometimes the trouble can be quite readily rectified.

If the check on him shows nothing amiss, then it is time to begin more extensive medical studies of yourself, because the cramps may, perhaps, indicate that you need some special treatment.

Dear Dr. Molner: Last year I had surgery—perforated diverticulum, and part of the bowel and appendix removed. In the last few months I have noticed part of the stool are very dark, almost black at times. At other times, everything seems normal. I can't seem to pin it down to an certain foods.

—MRS. V.M.

These dark stools should be checked for blood—they are a usual sign of bleeding higher up. (A diverticulum can be a cause of such bleeding.)

Dear Dr. Molner: I have read a great deal about the effect of radio-active fallout on milk. Why is milk singled out? Is it more responsive to radiation than other foods?—D.C.

One very good reason is its universality. We can (and do) test milk content in all regions of the country. It is a product that is fresh daily. We can take samples, under identical conditions, at points thousands of miles apart, and thus get a comparison. No, milk is not more sensitive to radiation. It's just an excellent gauge for us to use.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 19 years old, five feet seven inches tall and weigh 126 pounds. I am flat-chested, which my mother attributes to constantly sleeping on my stomach. She suggests hormone shots or pills. What is your opinion?—SARA S.

Your weight is about right for height and age—and if your bust develops in the future, it won't be the first time this has happened. Feminine figures vary greatly. Sleeping on your stomach, complicated as it may seem, has nothing to do with it. Unless some proved degynecological aspects of the wife.

menstrual cycle is present, stay away from hormones.

'Y' Committees Plan Junior High Program

Survey of Young People to be Basis Of Final Decisions

More canoe trips for boys, out-of-town trips for girls and opening of the youth center two additional periods each week for junior high pupils are being considered by the Appleton YMCA and YWCA committees.

The committees are discussing means of expanding the Y's service to junior high pupils. A questionnaire to the junior high boys and girls in the YMCA program will be used as a basis for final decisions by the committees.

The wilderness Sea Lion Lake property purchased by the Y's Men's Club will be used for a camping program for boys. Work Sea Lion Lake as part of their training program.

es, tables and fireplaces, and improving the swimming beach and the canoe landing area. Swimming, fishing and canoeing will make up the recreational program.

Herman Kafura, who will be assisting the youth department this summer, will be the leader for the canoe trips. He has made two Canadian border canoe trips with the YMCA, one as a camper and one as a counselor. Depending on the size of the group, he will have one or two assistants.

Before making the trip, the boys will be trained in canoeing, water safety, setting up tents and fire-building. The YMCA has four aluminum canoes, tents, pack for high pupils are being considered by the Appleton YMCA and YWCA committees.

Kafura will also direct the Canadian border canoe trip for senior high boys from July 20 to 29. The trip to the Minnesota canoe trail base is made along the scenic north shore of Lake Superior to Grand Marais and then up the Gunflint trail to West Bearskin Lake, which is about a mile from the Canadian border. The boys making this trip also will go to Sea Lion Lake as part of their training program.

For girls, trips to Milwaukee, Chicago and other points of interest are in the planning stages. Bike trips are also being considered.

Junior and senior high girls have swim periods on Monday and Wednesday from 6 to 7 p.m. Junior high coed swims are already scheduled from 7 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.

Operating the youth center for junior high boys and girls two afternoons a week was recommended to the committee.

A survey of the junior high members will be made this week to learn the interests of the young people. The results of the survey will be referred to the adult committees.

Zsa Zsa Balks At Questions In Libel Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor, suing Cavalier Magazine for $6 million, is balking at answering some of the pre-trial questions in connection with the suit.

Her attorney objected Monday to questions asked by the magazine, which is being sued for defamation. The lawyer said the magazine was getting "too personal" when it asked how many gifts Zsa Zsa has received from admirers since 1946, how many men she has been engaged to since that time and whether the Hungarian beauty had ever received psychiatric treatment.

Superior Judge Philbrick McCoy ordered Miss Gabor first to answer all questions by May 31 and then present her protests to the court.

High Finance on the State Level was discussed at the annual meeting of the Appleton Taxpayers Association Monday. Exchanging ideas are Gregory Schulte, first president of the Appleton group; J. O. Mithus, Racine; and Sherman Frinak, outgoing local president. Mithus was the guest speaker. He is chairman of the Special Taxpayers Committee on the State Budget, a group of 75 citizens organized in 1954 to work for lower state spending.

Higher State Budget Could Cancel Property Tax Relief

Taxpayer Group Speaker Claims Sales Levy Revenue Not Enough

BY REINY WESSING
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

At the rate Wisconsin's spending is increasing every biennium, the selective sales tax is not enough to provide the property tax relief that citizens have been promised, J. C. Mithus told the Appleton Taxpayers Association Monday night.

Mithus is chairman of the Special Taxpayers Committee on the State Budget. He co-authored the tax revision bill, including a general sales tax levy, which the legislature passed but Gov. Nelson vetoed. The Racine man spoke to about 200 persons at the local association's annual meeting.

Mithus said state spending has increased an average of 22 per cent during each of the last four bienniums. That means, he said, that during the next biennium spending will go up another $100 million to a total of about $600 million.

Not Enough Revenue
"Yet the most that can be expected from the present tax structure is an additional $50 million. Therefore, if the state winds up some $50 million short, it should be apparent that broadening the sales tax is not going to provide much money for income or property tax relief," the speaker said.

Mithus condemned Wisconsin's new tax revision law as inadequate, and said continuation of present state spending trends threatens more government control and taxes.

"The only alternative is a good hard look at state spending," he contended. "We can take a long look at the large number of state departments we have, with a view toward eliminating or consolidating some of them. We can determine if our state aids are a necessary job or if they are distributed in a way that encourages higher local spending. We can determine if our welfare or other services overlap and whether local government is overburdened at the multiple level it frequently is."

General Sales Tax
"The selective sales tax should be extended to a general sales tax to provide revenue for commerce, 525 Vandenberg St., Little Chute, incumbent register of income taxes, which was one of the objectives of the original Republican ticket."

"Look—There They Are, eating with the President!" Katie Reynolds, left, daughter of the Wisconsin attorney general, John W. Reynolds and Laurie Lucey, daughter of Pat Lucey, state Democratic Party chairman, were interested spectators Saturday night in Milwaukee while their fathers were host to President John F. Kennedy at a party fund-raising dinner.

Judge Parnell Lauds Police, Court System

Scandals Can't Occur Here, He Says in Oshkosh Address

OSHKOSH — Wisconsin's police and court systems received high praise Monday from Circuit Court Judge A. W. Parnell, Appleton, who predicted that no city in the state would be victimized from police scandals similar to Chicago and Denver.

Parnell addressed the Wisconsin Professional Policeman's Association as part of the observance of National Police Week.

"People have grown acclimated to expecting virtue in police operations in the state," Parnell said. "To your great and everlasting credit you have established a state of security and dependency in the people of the state which will always be the object of your proud legacy."

Free From Criticism
Other states have been reprimanded by Supreme Courts, Parnell said, for not allowing citizens a due process of law. Wisconsin has been free from that criticism because of the rigid insistence that there be post-conviction remedies available and workable whereby every step in criminal proceedings can be gauged to assure that due process be observed throughout.

There are many cases, Parnell said, in which years after the trial, reversals have been granted because it was reasoned by the Supreme Court that at some point in trial, the accused had been slighted of process benefits.

Parnell said the state requires district attorneys to inform prisoners awaiting trial of their right to counsel and of the process of procuring witnesses.

By law, the court must advise the accused of his right to counsel and to appoint a counsel at his request and at public expense.

Rights Protected
Parnell said the state suggests that all reasonable remedies for the protection of rights for a convicted felon be made available.

Both the courts and the police systems have the responsibility to see that these rights are respected in all phases of the proceedings "from the filing of the complaint to the pronouncement of the sentence."

Parnell said that in the administration of criminal justice, police and the courts must maintain an interest of cooperation and not competition.

Common interest of the court and police should urge progress in all phases of activity, to appreciate improvements in advanced techniques and to reward merit wherever it is deserved.

Parnell said the two systems should condemn abuses of power wherever they appear and to join in separate, but common purposes in bringing to the state assurance that criminal justice will always be administered with firm but fair regard to the rights of all.

Woman, 81, Dies; Mother Survives

Mrs. Stammer was born Feb. 4, 1879, in Waukesha, and has lived in Appleton for the last 50 years.

Other survivors include her husband, two daughters, two sons, one brother, one sister, seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Rasmussen Report Says Ramp Plans Need Changes

Confusing Traffic Patterns, Space Shortage to Maneuver Cars Cited

Plans and specifications for Appleton's two parking ramps indicated there will be confusing traffic patterns, inadequate exits and not enough room to maneuver vehicles easily, according to a report by City Planner Walter Rasmussen.

The plans were turned over to Rasmussen April 24 by the board of public works. He was asked to study them and make a report to the board today. His report was to be presented to the board this afternoon.

The two ramps are going to cost Appleton about $1 million, plus architects fees and interest on bonds to finance the structures. Here are Rasmussen's comments on the ramp proposed for the southwest corner of Division and Washington Streets:

Cross Traffic
Vehicles leaving the upper level will have to enter the same lane of traffic on Walnut Street as cars entering the ramp. The entrance is on the south end of the ramp. The exit is to the north.

When the third level is added to the ramp the north parking aisle will become a deadend because of the driveway to the top level. That means that traffic leaving the north aisle will have to back out because of no circulating traffic pattern.

Traffic at the other ramp, at Washington, Morrison and Franklin Streets will be similarly confused, he says.

Vehicles wishing to use the upper level will have to cross both the entrance and exit for the lower level on the Franklin street side. Vehicles leaving the ramp will have to exit through traffic trying to enter the ramp.

One Exit
All traffic from the upper level is routed to one of two exits on the lower level. But there are three entrances to the lower level. Rasmussen points out Rasmussen contends "also that the 90 degree parking stalls are hard to use in any case. But the difficulty is magnified in Appleton's two proposed ramps because of supporting pillars for the second, and in the future, the third, levels. There are three-car bays between pillars, which are set to line up with the back end of cars. He suggests that supporting pillars should be placed down the center of the double-row parking lanes, so that they line up with the fronts of the cars. Then drivers do not have to try to maneuver around the pillars, and angle parking could be used.

Easy Parking
Rasmussen says the ramps must be engineered for good traffic flow and easy parking or the public won't use them.

The width of the double-row parking lanes and the traffic lanes behind each should be 62 feet 6 inches, he contends, not the 60 feet shown in the plans and specifications.

Space allowances for parking structures should be generous, he says, so that the public will be encouraged to use them.

More Stalls
Rasmussen believes, also, that by rearranging the pillars and closing off some unnecessary cross-over traffic lanes the number of parking can be increased.

It is hoped the ramp at Division and Washington streets can be started in July so it will be finished in time for this year's Christmas shopping season.

It is not believed that much time would be lost, if any, if the plans are changed to conform to any of Rasmussen's suggestions.

W. T. Collins Co., Milwaukee, is designing and engineering the ramps for the city. Representatives of the firm were scheduled to be at the board of public works meeting this afternoon.

Pupils From Vacated Speel School Will be Transported to Appleton

Kindergartens will be instituted in all attached areas, the Appleton Board of Education decided Monday.

The board approved a series of recommendations from Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz affecting attached schools. Part or all of eight school districts surrounding Appleton were attached to the city system for all school purposes April 25.

Speel School will be closed and pupils from that area will be transported to schools in Appleton. Only about 11 children from the district will be in the Appleton school system, Kurtz said. The district was split four ways by attachments, and the majority of the pupils will attend schools in Kimberly, Kaukauna and Wrightstown.

School Board OKs Contracts

Leave of Absence Granted for Teacher Seeking Master's

The Appleton Board of Education Monday approved 11 new contracts for the 1962-1963 school year, one resignation effective at the end of the present school year, and a leave of absence for study for a master's degree.

The board granted a one-year leave of absence to William Geenen, elementary teacher at Foster School, to complete his master's degree. Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz recommended the approval, and said he felt this should be encouraged. He said the administration would like to get more teachers with master's degrees for the elementary schools.

Crombie, junior high science teacher; Lee Schoeni, senior high speech and drama teacher and department head; Mrs. Kathleen Eacret, Mrs. Rosemary Freischmidt, Miss Karen Grafmeier, Miss Marcella Kinney, Miss Patricia Sullivan and Larry W. Koel, elementary school teachers; Miss Carol Ruesing, elementary physical education, and Miss Gloria A. Glass, speech correction.

A resignation was accepted from Marvin Earp, science teacher at Madison Junior High School, who will be going into a family business. He will be replaced by Crombie, who has been in the school system this year as a replacement for William Harnitz, called up last fall with the 32nd Division.

School Board Names Several New Principals

Miss Wuest Praised; 2 on Intern Program Receive New Posts

Several changes in elementary school principals for the 1962-1963 school year were made by the Appleton Board of Education Monday.

Ray Parkinson was appointed new principal of Jefferson School. He is now principal of Columbus School.

Miss Rose Wuest, now principal of Jefferson, has resigned this position to become the teacher for the class for emotionally disturbed children which will be established in Appleton next fall. She has worked on the committee setting up the program for the new class.

The board agreed with a suggestion by Mrs. Myrl Davis, president, that it officially recognize Miss Wuest for volunteering for the new position at a cut in salary, because she will be changed from the principal's to the teacher's salary schedule. They praised her work as a principal.

James Retson, principal of Huntley School, was appointed supervising principal for one year of the six schools attached to Appleton, including Badger, Triangle, Twin Willow, Woodlawn, Elm-dale and Red Star. He will be granted a travel allowance of $40 per month during the school year.

The new appointments meant advancement for two teachers who have completed two years on the internship program for principals. Richard Haas was appointed full-time assistant principal at Huntley School for one year. He is now an intermediate II teacher at Jefferson School.

Retson will continue as principal, but will spend 85 to 90 per cent of his time in the attached schools, leaving major responsibility for Huntley to his assistant.

Richard Goree, also a principal intern, has been appointed principal of Columbus School to replace Parkinson. He now is an intermediate II teacher at Edison School.

Sales Tax Revenue Not Enough, Speaker Says

people would stop buying," he explained.

The income tax withholding feature of the new law is going to lead to great temptations to hike income taxes further, on the theory it won't be felt as much because of the many small bites, Mithus said.

Another bad feature of the new law, Mithus said, is that it sets the state up as a tax equalization agency, and consequently the law ignores a fair play approach.

The property taxpayer who lives in a community with an equalized tax rate of 14 mills per $1,000 must pay the sales tax and higher income tax, yet gets no property tax relief because the state government has arbitrarily decided that, unless he pays up to that level, he deserves no relief, the speaker said.

"No consideration is given to the fact that his local property taxes may be lower because he is willing to do without certain services, or because he or his local officials are doing an efficient job of keeping costs down," Mithus explained.

It is a serious mistake to accept the premise that substantial Church Women of Wisconsin at spending increases are inevitable the organization's annual state convention Monday at the American Baptist Assembly Grounds. "We hear a great deal about

Check Legality Of Storm Sewer

Kaukauna Furnished Facility Outside of City Without Charge

KAUKAUNA — The city attorney, under the direction of the board of public works, has undertaken a study to determine the legality of the city furnishing sanitary sewer without charges to a resident outside the city limits.

The problem arose in 1946 when the city was to provide and prepare a site for the United States Federal Housing Authority to place and operate quonset huts to accommodate returning war veterans.

The city promptly extended storm and sanitary sewer facilities beyond city lines into the Town of Buchanan to the site selected for erection of the quonset huts. The federal government set up the huts and operated them under government control until 1950, when the entire operation was turned over to the city.

The huts remained in use until 1954, when they were dismantled. According to the agreement with the owner of the property on which the huts were located, he was to receive sewer service without charge until termination of the contract permitting huts to be located on his property. Removal of the huts terminated the contract, thus the property owner should be required to pay for sewer services, according to some board members.

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

New tonic-tablet laxative acts on colonic muscles... de-constipates overnight.

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body. But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition. Relief, doctors say, lies in the non-irritating, de-constipating principle of a new tonic-tablet called COLONAX. Of all leading laxatives, only COLONAX gives you its special 3-way overnight relief for tension-caused constipation. (1) COLONAX stimulates your colonic nerve network, to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) COLONAX's unique re-building action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) COLONAX moistens for easy passage without pain or strain. COLONAX relieves even chronic constipation overnight: is so gentle it was hospital-proved safe even for expectant mothers. Get COLONAX today. INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Nelson Notes Policemen's Rigors

Governor Says Foes Have Misplaced Sense of Values

OSHKOSH — Gov. Gaylord Nelson praised Wisconsin law enforcement as impartial, vigorous and tempered with discretion in a talk before the 19th annual Wisconsin Professional Policemen's Association convention here Monday and then took off on opponents of his state budget charging they have a misplaced sense of values.

The governor said he believed the public should know more about the rigors of the life of a policeman and then noted that public attention has been forcibly called to the situation during the last year with the shooting deaths of four Wisconsin policemen.

He criticized those who complain about high taxes but fail to mention the services provided by

Michigan Man Named Coach At Menasha

Thomas D. Weede Chosen to Guide Jay Grid Squad

MENASHA — The Board of Education Monday night voted to offer a contract to Thomas D. Weede, 32, East Lansing, Mich., as head football coach for Menasha High School.

Weede, who is married and has two children, will receive his M.S. degree in physical education next month from Michigan State University.

Previous teaching experience includes three years at Boyne City High School; one year at Addison (Mich.) High School; and most recently, five years at Houghton Lake (Mich.) High School.

During his term as football coach at Houghton Lake, Weede's teams won 32 games, lost six and tied two. He was on the all-state high school football team in 1945 and was named to the all-conference football squad in 1951 while attending Central Michigan University, from which he graduated with a B.S. in physical education in 1952.

Weede is employed at Elmwood Elementary School, and Central High School, both of Transverse Corp., in Lansing, Mich. He was involved in health education and physical education at Michigan State University, and worked in educational administration while doing graduate work at Michigan State.

Weede's experience includes coaching football, basketball and swimming. He has also served as a lifeguard. While at Michigan State, this year, he served on the freshman football staff with notable success.

Menasha Gets $75,000 Offer For Park Land

Appleton Promoter Says Shopping Center Planned by Client

MENASHA — Two weeks after litigation was settled, the City of Menasha has received an offer to purchase Racine Street Park for $75,000 cash.

The offer was tendered, with a $7,500 cashier's check, by Joseph J. Engel, Appleton real estate promoter, who told the council he would not resell the land (almost 2 acres) to any local client.

Engel said his clients would build a "multi-million dollar" shopping center, provided with adequate parking. Engel said the offer must be accepted by June 6 and the deal closed by July 6.

He wrote the council that in case he could get only part of the park land, a chain store client would erect a store of $250,000 to $300,000 value. He asked to discuss the deal in a secret meeting.

Opposition
Ald. Louis Gamme and several other aldermen voiced opposition and decided Engel's offer will not be on tonight's council agenda. The offer probably will be referred to the ordinance and resolution committee.

Gamme said: "We just went through a lawsuit on that property. The mayor has told the people anything to be done with the land would be after a referendum. That's my attitude. We talk a lot of central location for the city offices. We spend money keeping up the police and fire stations, water and light and park offices. The ordinance committee can meet in the near future."

Ald. Richard Hansen agreed, saying, "This needs thorough investigation. A lot can be done with that property. It's worth much to us."

One alderman, after the meeting, said he had heard of "pressure" on council members from up to seven local parties interested in the land.

Fond du Lac Man to Head Police Group

OSHKOSH — Sgt. John Havey of Fond du Lac was elected president of the Wisconsin Professional Policemen's Association at the association's 19th annual convention Monday. He succeeds Donald Dodge of Racine.

Frank Barbers, Stevens Point, was elected vice president; Ray L. Cray, Madison, secretary; Charles Wolbert, Cudahy, treasurer; and John A. Lawson, Madison, was re-named legal counsel. Earl Jackson was named to a three-year term on the board of directors to represent the Appleton police department. He succeeds Norbert Marx.

Other new directors are James Aerts, DePere, and Donald Kergel, Wauwatosa, succeeding Louie Wrasse who is retiring after 25 years as the association's treasurer.

Directors re-elected to three-year terms are Earl Zuehlke, Oshkosh; Charles Wolbert, Cudahy; Norbert Nelson, Manitowish; Glen Matthews, Superior; John Havey, Fond du Lac; Donald Dodge, Racine; and Frank Barbers, Stevens Point.

Girl Should Seek Degree After Bachelor's Won

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman Columbia University Forum, a quarterly journal of fact and opinion, concedes that "the finding of a husband and the full use of one's mind are not, within a lifetime, mutually exclusive."

Questionable Benefit

"But," she adds, "it is questionable whether either of these tasks benefits from being undertaken simultaneously with the other."

Dr. Heilbrun is an instructor in English in Columbia's School of General Studies. She took her Bachelor of Arts degree from Wellesley College and her Master's and Doctorate from Columbia. She is married and the mother of three.

"To one who is acquainted with many women, and a few educators," she writes, "it appears that women are having their education and their children at times which could not be more inconvenient for the development of their own lives, the needs of society, or the comfort of the men to whom they are married."

Becomes Serious Student

She feels that by the time a woman is in her 30s, her youngest child would be in elementary school, and she would be a serious student.

That opinion is based, in part, on her own experience as a teacher at Columbia. There she found that women who had not gone to college in their youth or had returned later for their education were "extraordinary students."

By delaying her college education, the Columbia teacher explains, the young woman would avoid being "dropped from the heights of Olympus to the depths of the washing machine," and she adds:

Look Forward to Profession

"Rather the years of her children's babyhood can be experienced and enjoyed in the knowledge that beyond lie the years of the mother's professional life. A woman, like a man, can have a profession, but the time for her profession is later....

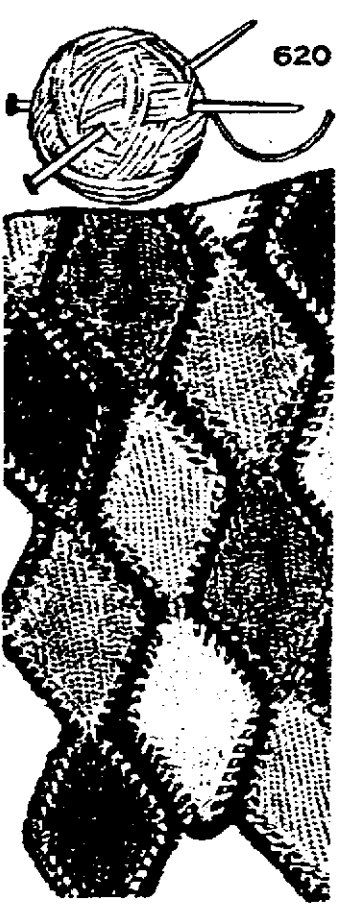

"Employers are now skeptical, and rightly so, of their investment in the training of a woman who may become pregnant and leave just when she may begin to be useful to them....

"Of course, we must, as a society, get over the idea that our jobs can only be done by very young, the newly minted. We must get over, too, the idea that college is for the noble....

"Is not the college woman a better mother for her college education? The answer is no, not as the mother of very young children. What they need is love, time and attention, gifts better given undiluted with resentment," Dr. Heilbrun said.

Mrs. Heilbrun concedes that some women would be lost to col-

"It was a free finesse," the prisoner protested.

pets, you probably wondered how it all began. This is the bridge hand that started the trouble.

West opened the deuce of hearts, and South thought that he could play low from the dummy as a free finesse. If East had the king, he would have to play it and thus set up the queen of hearts; and if East didn't have the king, South would be able to win the first trick with the queen of hearts.

In short, it all looked extremely peachy.

Wormy Peach

But there was a worm in this peach. East won the first trick with the king of hearts and shifted to the queen of spades.

South refused the first trick but had to win the second. West unblocked by playing the king of spades.

South might have kept himself out of court by guessing the clubs correctly, but he led a club to

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

A happy baby is a baby beloved. But baby's inner security stems from knowing he is loved. And the ways you can tell him are wonderful, indeed: by the croon of your voice when you speak to him... your thistle-down touch when you care for him. A cradled arm offered... a cry for help answered. Mother love may not show up in inches and ounces but it certainly makes a baby grow inside.

A happy association with food and feeding also contributes to baby's sense of security. If meal-times are kept pleasant and relaxed, baby will learn that food is something to look forward to.

Mealtime satisfaction assured when you serve Gerber Strained Foods. For they're specially prepared to make baby want to be pecked for seconds. A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Eye Allure Gives Touch of Cleopatra

The eyes of Cleopatra are upon us. Everywhere you see modern lovelies borrowing the eye allure of Egypt's legendary queen.

Some make a convincing job of it. But many, too many, get amateurish effects, like little girls play-acting with mother's cosmetics.

For glamour in 1962, the Cleopatra eye must be translated rather than taken literally. It must be up-dated and drawn with a subtle hand. The method follows:

1. Keep in mind throughout that the look is based on horizontal emphasis, on an elongated eye. Begin by softly contouring the bony structure under the eye-brows with brown shadow. Then film the lids with white shadow. Blend both well out into the temples.
2. Line the inside rims of the lids, close to the lashes with kohl. This is a dusky powder, used by early Egyptians. Its present vermascara - to curl the lashes, but also to sweep them horizontally to the sides. 5. Brush the brows as straight across as possible.

Presto, you're a modern Cleo! Of course, the look may not be your aim. But if it is, aim to make the elegant most of it.

You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness, or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper skin care, cosmetic applications, health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, "The Eyes of Youth." To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller in care of your newspaper, enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Today's Etiquette

EMBARRASSED GENTLEMAN
My husband and I were invited by a widow friend to an exclusive restaurant for dinner. She had phoned earlier in the day to make the table reservation. The occasion was honoring my sister who was visiting us. My husband was embarrassed when the waiter put the check at his place during the main course. He didn't know what to do, so did nothing, but felt very uncomfortable while it was lying there all that time. What else could he have done and how does one handle such a situation?

Louise Davis Answers:
Your embarrassed husband couldn't have done anything else but try to ignore the presence of the check. No doubt your hostess didn't see it or she would have retrieved it immediately to avoid any such embarrassment. The waiter did what comes naturally by handing the check to the only gentleman at the table. It was unfortunate that your hostess didn't request when ordering that the bill be given to her. She apparently gave no indication that this was to be her party. She would have been more subtle and thoughtful had no bill or money been involved at the table at all. At the time she telephoned to make the reservation, she should have made special arrangements with the manager or head waiter so that nothing would have been in evidence. Plans might have been made for the restaurant to mail her a statement and I'm sure that there would have been time to check on your hostess' credit rating.

DeMille's 'Cleopatra' Revealed Its Film Age

Old Movie Great in Its Day, but New Cinema Version Certainly Needed

BY JINGO
One of the late shows during the weekend may have given us the best reason for all of the ruckus over in Rome these days. If ever there was a need for a revamping job, that job was needed by "Cleopatra."

Cecil B. DeMille had plenty of laurels to rest on and his reputation was secure in the firmament of cinemaland, but it is a pity his early milestones can't remain in the history books or in art film series.

There is no doubt it took considerable courage to tackle a story of the magnitude of "Cleopatra" as a pathfinder and in the scope of his day his innovations of the mob scenes, the costumes and the symbolic editing of the more violent scenes, not to mention the spectacles, must have been exciting indeed.

This weekend it was obvious there has been a whale of a lot of changes in filmmaking since Cecil's queen of Egypt floated down the Nile in her pleasure palace boat. The story is intriguing enough to give it another chance — even with the side-shows.

It is hoped Wanger and Company keep their violence on the field of battle and out of the script. Dramatic compression is a legitimate device on the stage, but DeMille overdid it a bit.

Perhaps, if we have patience enough, we'll see what the second try at the story does.

With all of the troubles and delays and such, the current film has become something beyond itself. It has been suggested that a perfect symbol of frustration could be Cleopatra floating down the Nile in HMS Bounty.

For the real fans of the cinema, tomorrow should be a red letter day. The Sunset Players, auxiliary organization of the drama department at Lawrence College, is sponsoring two showings of "Black Orpheus" at 7:10 and 9:10 at the Appleton Theater. The film is a modern legend of love, passion and violence amidst the splendor of the carnival in Rio. It was directed

Gary Moore Tops Fare For Tonight

BY TV SCOUT
7-7:30 (Channel 2) — Olivia De Havilland and Douglas Fairbanks Jr. prove expert game players on this week's edition of Password.

7-30-8 (Channel 2) — Maynard G. Krebs (Bob Denver) proves himself a brilliant anthropologist and a very fine-type human being on Dobie Gillis this week. On an anthropology field trip, he literally falls into a cave where Mike Mazurki, a genuine prehistoric cave man, has somehow survived all these centuries.

7-30-8:30 (Channel 11) — The New Breed treads familiar ground with a case involving a lonely hearts killer. Joseph Wiseman plays the villain, who kills rich and lonely ladies with a length of clothesline and a few stanzas of bad poetry. Ann B. Davis (Bob Cummings' Schulzy) is the first victim, and Carmen Mathews is the second victim.

9-9:30 (Channel 11) — Alcoa Premiere tries to make a drama out of the story of an actress (Celeste Holm) who is faced with the removal of her larynx. And it is arresting — up to a point.

9-10 (Channel 2) — The Garry Moore Show is a bit brighter and more melodic than its usual light standard. Alan King is on hand for an expert satire of doctors and medicines. Jane Powell will solo on the lovely "Musetta's Waltz" from "La Boheme." Two sketches feature the comedy talent of Carol Burnett — in one, she's a television psychiatrist with a problem of her own and, in the other, she and Durward Kirby, are Martians masquerading as Earthlings. That Wonderful Year is 1953.

9-10 (Channel 4-5) — There is a routine story of corruption in high places on Cain's Hundred this week, picked up a bit by good dialogue. But the characters are almost stereotypes — Edward Binns as the police officer on the take, who has a change of heart; Alex Nicol as the reporter on the take, who isn't sure if he regrets it or not; Anthony Caruso, a typical heavy; Pat Crowley, the sweet young cooking editor who loves the reporter.

9-30-10 (Channel 11) — Leo Swann, who produced "The Vanishing Oasis," tonight's Close-Up! documentary, says the subject of water doesn't seem exciting for a television show. But, he says, "once you get into it, it's fascinating." This is a study of water pollution and scarcity across the U.S., its effects on citizens and the possible remedies. Rep. John A. Blatnik, D-Minn., is a key figure on the program, doing much of the narration.

10-20-12 (Channel 4-5) — Jack Carter as host greets guests Jimmy Dean, Louise O'Brien, the Baird Marionettes, Ross Hunter and Jack E. Leonard. (Color)

Appleton Man to Appear in Spring Concert in Boston

Lawrence A. Strieby, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Glenn Strieby, 616 E. Circle St., will play the French horn with the New England Conservatory Orchestra in the Boston music school's May Festival concert Thursday.

The festival is the Conservatory's major annual production that combines the school's best performing talent. In its third year, proceeds from the concert are used for the student scholarship fund. This year Mrs. John Anthony Volpe, wife of the governor of Massachusetts, and Dr. Alfredo Trinchieri, Italian consul general, are honorary chairmen of the event.

Strieby, a graduate of Appleton High School where he won many musical honors, is a student of New England Conservatory. He also was a former student of Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

Braves to Send Piche Against Pirates Tonight

'We are Leaving Too Many Men on Base,' Says Birdie Tebbetts

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves will send right-hander Ron Piche to the mound against Pittsburgh Tuesday night in an attempt to move up from their 7th place position in the National League race.

Piche, who has a 2-0 record, probably will be opposed by Earl Francis, who is 1-2 for the year.

The Braves had an off day Monday but manager Birdie Tebbetts had his squad go through batting practice at the Bucs field.

"We are leaving too many men on base," Tebbetts said. "How many guys have we left on third base with none or one out because we couldn't get a sacrifice fly?" he asked. "It's been a lot."

"We have missed Eddie Mathews' bat in the last seven games, but you can't expect him to carry the load. We have to get production for some of the others."

Mathews still is sidelined with an injured shoulder. He said it doesn't hurt him to swing a bat but it is painful when he throws. The veteran third baseman will be in uniform Tuesday night and may see some action in a pinch hitting role, if he is needed.

Also rejoining the squad Tuesday night will be right-handed hurler Lew Burdette who hurt his ankle April 29.

The Braves are 5-11 on the road this year and on their present road trip have a 2-2 record.

Pittsburgh got off to a fine start this season, winning 10 straight but then lost 14 out of their last 18 starts. They have a losing streak now of six straight games.

AHS Netters Post 8-1 Win Over Fondy

Appleton High School dropped its first match but went on to sweep the last eight to defeat the Fond du Lac tennis team, 8-1, Monday afternoon at Fondy.

Fond du Lac's Ray Gielow outlasted Jack Wendt, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4, in the No. 1 singles event before Ron Mills, Jim Hill, Dave Wollwage, Brian Bock, and Ken Gibson took singles matches for the Terrers. John Kading and Wollwage, Hill and Mills, and Dick Bleck and Keith Gibson captured doubles events.

Hill posted his tenth victory against a lone defeat and the doubles victory with Mills was the fourth in five tries by the pair.

It was Appleton's seventh win of the season against four losses.

Gielow (F) beat Wendt, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4. Mills (A) beat Plagens, 5-7, 6-3.

Hill (A) beat John Wachs, 6-0, 6-3. Wollwage (A) beat Stan DeRusha, 6-2, 6-0.

Bock (A) beat Skip Stohlgren, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

Gibson (A) beat Jim Zorn, 7-5, 9-7. Kading Wollwage (A) beat Gielow Wachs, 6-2, 6-0.

Hill-Mills (A) beat Plagens DeRusha, 6-2, 6-1.

Bleck-Gibson (A) beat Stohlgren-Zorn, 7-5, 6-4, 6-0.

Lawrence Plays Host To MC Golf Meet

The Midwest Conference golf meet returns to the Fox Cities—the place of its beginning, this weekend and the Lawrence College Vikings will be trying to match the performances of past Viking teams as hosts.

When 50 golfers from the 10 Midwest Conference schools tee off Friday morning at picturesque Menasha North Shore Country Club, they will be trying to match a 14-year low total of 128 carded by Wally Ubrich, of Carleton, for 36 holes.

Each team will have five golfers entered, but scores from only the top four will be counted in standings. Each golfer will play 18 holes on Friday and 18 more on Saturday.

Carleton, seeking its fourth straight title, is the pre-meet favorite, but Ripon, Grinnell and Coach Bernie Heseltin's Vikings all rate as good possibilities for dethroning the Carls.

4 Golfers Back

Lawrence has four of its top five golfers from last year returning. Only Jim Rasmussen, Butte des Morts in 1938, at Reid the No. 1 man, has been graduated from a team which finished fifth but were only four strokes out of third.

Taking over the No. 1 spot for the Vikings this year will be junior Carey Wickland. An all-around athlete, Wickland will be a contender for medalist honors.

He finished 16th among the 50 golfers last year, but has shown great improvement.

Ranking right behind Wickland is veteran Dan Gilmore, the 14th man in the 1961 meet at Knox. The rounding out the top four will be Herb Weber and John Alton.

Adler Brau Golf Meet Scheduled June 2-3

Entry Deadline May 30; Five Flights Set

The eighth annual Adler Brau golf tournament will be played on the Reid Municipal course June 2 and 3.

Entries must be received or postmarked by midnight, May 30, according to "Doc" Wonsor, tournament director. All amateur golfers are eligible.

Competition will be in five flights: championship, A, B, senior and junior. (The latter is a new flight).

A new 1962 feature is a chance to win $1,000 for a hole-in-one. A golf equipment company announces it will pay that amount for an ace during the first day of the tourney, Saturday, June 2.

The tourney consists of 36 holes of medal play. The entry fee (including greens fee) is $6.

Each had bad rounds in the meet last year and a good weekend spurt by them could move the Vikings into serious contention.

Ripon has been bolstered by surprise sophomore Steve Rogers who has wrestled the No. 1 spot away from veteran Bob Schulz.

Dave Lehman in the No. 3 spot gives the Redmen good depth.

Carleton has lost last year's medalist, Walt Andrews, but has everyone else back on a team which had four men finish 12th or better in the individual ranks.

Charles Greer, John Juers, Jim Hoffer and Bob Lee compose the nucleus.

Third Placer Returns

St. Olaf's Charlie Skarsaag, third last year is back. Grinnell's Charlie Hockett and Beloit's Phil Lindley, who tied for fourth in 1961, are also back. Promising sophomore Grant Maples, brother of Jerry Maples, the No. 2 man in the meet last year, bolsters Cornell.

This will be the fourth time that Lawrence has acted as host for the meet. It was played at Reid the No. 1 man, has been graduated from a team which finished fifth but were only four strokes out of third.

A Lawrence team, headed by Appleton's Don Strutz, climaxed one of the high points in Viking golf history, by winning the 1949 meet at Mum with a great Saturday performance.

Strutz was medalist in the 1949 meet with a 142. He was supported by Don Flicker, Carl Laumann and Al Braun for the winning 604 total.

Since then, the highest Lawrence finish was in 1954. The Vikings were seven strokes over the winning Knox total of 615.

Foxes Open Home Stand Tonight, Seek First Win

Angels Hand Fox Cities Seventh Loss

The Fox Cities Foxes were victims of a 4-run fifth inning by Quad Cities at Davenport Monday night and went down to their seventh straight defeat of the season, 9-5.

The Foxes will try for their first Midwest League victory in history when they meet the Angels tonight at Goodland Field. Manager Cal Ripken is expected to send Bill Robertson to the mound for the Foxes, while Manager Bill Fitzpatrick has nominated 21-year old Bob Have to hurl for the Angels.

The Foxes tallied five times in the top half of the fifth to grab a 5-0 advantage. The Angels narrowed the lead down with three in the third before erupting for four runs in the fifth. They added two more in the seventh to account for the final score.

Cosgrove Starts

Steve Cosgrove started for the Foxes but left in the fifth after walking six and uncorking three wild pitches.

Cosgrove started the inning by hitting a man and tossing a wild pitch. Paul Schaaf singled in a run and Dick Rose followed with an infield hit. After Cosgrove walked Brown Taylor, Richie Colpaert came on only to be greeted by a 2-run double by Ken Meyers. Pinch hitter Bob Johnson drove in the final marker of the inning on a ground out.

Dave Pickle finished up for the Foxes giving up a pair of runs in eight innings. Jim McGlothlin was the winner for the Angels but needed help from Frank Shubert in the sixth.

The Foxes outburst in the third started with Bob Litchfield walking. After one out and a stolen base, Dan Markowski walked and Jimmie Norwood pounded in both runners with a long double to left.

Manager Cal Ripken was hit by a pitched ball and Carmen Iannaccone drove in Norwood with a single to right. Ripken and Iannaccone pulled off a double steal before Billy Hartshorn ended the scoring by belting a triple.

Pertinent Questions On Baseball Horizon Can be Answered Soon

Can Giants Become First National League Runaway Winner Since 1955?

BY JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The next two weeks may bring about answers to three very pertinent questions hovering over the baseball horizon:

1. Is the rest of the American League, after years of being spread-eagled by the New York Yankees, finally catching up to the practically perennial champions?
 2. Are the Cleveland Indians, pennantless since 1954, really a threat?
 3. Are the San Francisco Giants going to become the first National League runaway winner since the Dodgers, then in Brooklyn, waltzed to a pennant in 1955?
- A couple of weeks ago, Gabe Paul, general manager of the Indians, boldly stated that the Yankees would be hard pressed to repeat as champions this year. Taken lightly was his assertion that other clubs, including his own, had built themselves up to the Yankees.
- Today, Paul's assertions have more meaning than they did two weeks ago, because of (a) Cleveland's current position at the head of the league (b) the Indians' early dominance of the Yankees whom they've beaten five times in seven meetings and (c) the league standings which show only 4½ games separating the first eight clubs.

Revived Indians

There's no doubt that Gabe has revived the forlorn Indians of a year ago when they barely managed to squeeze into the first division, a whopping 30½ games behind the winning Yankees.

In a house-cleaning job, he changed managers and replaced several of last year's regulars with young, eager and speedy newcomers. The new manager, youthful Mel McGaha, besides establishing order and harmony, had fashioned a different club based on speed, pitching and defense.

Probably the biggest improvement has been in the club's bench, which has become one of the deepest and most maneuverable in the league. In the weekend series with the Yankees, McGaha platooned six outfielders and each contributed nobly in the club's three victories in four decisions.

Yankees Beat Pirates, 4-3, In Exhibition

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The New York Yankees scored three unearned runs Monday night and posted a 4-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in an exhibition game before 13,555 fans.

The Yanks, out-hit 11-8 in the game, scored three runs in the first inning on three singles, an error and a walk.

The winning run scored in the third inning when Roger Maris reached base on Dick Stuart's error, moved to second on Mickey Mantle's fly to center, and scored on Elston Howard's double.

The only home run in the game was a pinch-hit blast by Johnny Logan in the Pirates' ninth.

Little Chute's Legion '9' Slates First Practice

LITTLE CHUTE — American Legion baseball practice will get under way at 5:45 Wednesday at the Little Chute field, according to Roger Vander Wyst, manager.

Boys who reach their 19th birthdays before Sept. 1, 1962, are not eligible to compete. All positions are wide open and a large representation of talent is needed to meet the long summer schedule, according to Vander Wyst. Frequently, players are unable to make all contests.

The 26-year-old native of Minnesota has provided the Tribe with superb fielding and, surprisingly, solid hitting. Kindall is batting .277, although his lifetime average is only .217.

Even more important, Kindall is hitting in the clutch—especially against New York, whom the Indians have beaten five out of seven times.

Yankee Pitching

Against the Yanks, Kindall is swinging at a .385 pace, with eight of his 14 runs batted in coming against the world champions.

"I like our club," Kindall said. "We feel optimistic and we think we could make a run for the pennant."

Kindall doesn't subscribe to the theory that the Yankees' pitching is weak.

Frosh League Track Meet Being Held

The Fox Valley Freshman League track meet will be held this afternoon on the Appleton High School track. Madison Junior High is the host.

Etcheverry Signs, Gets Confidence Vote From Lemm

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Sam Etcheverry, the 31-year-old former Canadian passing great, signed his 1962 contract with the St. Louis Cardinals Monday and was given a solid vote of confidence by the club's new coach, Wally Lemm.

Lemm said he is convinced Etcheverry can do the job as a top-flight quarterback in the National Football League. Hampered by a sore arm in training, Etcheverry had his troubles, but finished strong, pitching the Big Red to three straight victories closing the season.

The Cards also signed the No. 2 quarterback, Charlie Johnson, and Lemm said he feels the 23-year-old New Mexico State grad has great potential.

The Cards expressed their confidence in Etcheverry last week by trading Ralph Guglielmi, then the No. 2 signal caller.

Etcheverry hit 96 of 196 passes last season for 1,275 yards and 14 touchdowns. It was his first NFL season. In nine seasons in the Canadian League, Sam completed 60 per cent of his passes for more than 30,000 yards and 183 touchdowns.

Clutch Hitting of Former Cub Stood Out Against Yankees

CLEVELAND (AP)—It's agreed now that Cleveland general manager Gabe Paul made a tremendous deal last November when he traded pitcher Bobby Locke to the Chicago Cubs for second baseman Jerry Kindall.

Kindall is one of the big differences between the 1961 Cleveland team and the current Indians, who lead the American League by a half game over the New York Yankees.

The 26-year-old native of Minnesota has provided the Tribe with superb fielding and, surprisingly, solid hitting. Kindall is batting .277, although his lifetime average is only .217.

Even more important, Kindall is hitting in the clutch—especially against New York, whom the Indians have beaten five out of seven times.

Knicks Sign Paul Hogue No. 1 Choice

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Knickerbockers announced Monday the signing of Paul Hogue, 6-foot-9 center from the University of Cincinnati and the Knicks' No. 1 draft choice.

"Hogue is an important factor in our plans for next season," Knicks' Coach Eddie Donovan said after a conference with the big center.

"He's strong off the boards, where we were weak last year. He has the strength, weight, defensive play and experience to help us right from the start. I saw him a number of times and he played well in all Cincinnati's key games."

Hogue, a powerful, 240-pounder, captained the Bearcats to their second straight NCAA championship last season and was instrumental in their upset of Ohio State in the title game.

Cubs' Hobbie Hurls 2-1 Win Over Chisox

CHICAGO (AP)—Right-hander Glen Hobbie and the Chicago Cubs edged their cross-town rival Chicago White Sox 2-1 Monday night in the 13th annual boys' benefit exhibition game before 20,675.

Hobbie limited the Sox to six hits, including a home run by catcher Bob Roselli, while his teammates mustered enough support to gain their ninth victory in the series.

The Cubs scored their first run in the second inning on a wild pitch and a single by Ron Santo off bonus rookie Dave DeBusschere, former University of Detroit basketball star. After Roselli tied it in the seventh, the Cubs scored the winning run in the eighth on Billy Williams' triple and a sacrifice fly by Ernie Banks.

DeBusschere worked the first five innings and gave up three hits and four walks.

Feels Secure

"You might say I feel secure here. I feel like a regular. To me, the most important factor in a ball player's success is experience... I came to the Cubs at 21 fresh out of college and hit .164. I simply wasn't ready. A fellow with my total lack of experience was just over his head. Experience is important. The more experience you get, the better you play. I'm getting experience."

Kindall speaks with erudition and with good reason. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota. Last winter he taught English at a Minneapolis high school.

Gabe Paul is happy to let Kindall do his talking with his glove and bat. "If he hits only .250 he'll be valuable at second base," Paul said when he made the trade. "He'll knock in runs with that average."

Jim O'Brien Sues Lions For $107,500

DETROIT (AP)—A former Boston College football star is suing the Detroit Lions of the National Football League for $107,500.

Jim O'Brien, 23, Hamden, Conn., tackle who failed to make the Lion squad in 1960, asked $100,000 in damages and $7,500 in contract pay in a suit filed in U.S. District Court Monday.

The $100,000 is to cover "defamation and slander" which prevented O'Brien from getting another job in football "commensurate with his ability," the suit says.

O'Brien charged the Lions arbitrarily dismissed him after he suffered a dislocated shoulder in an exhibition game with the Cleveland Browns, Aug. 13, 1960, before the start of the regular season that year.

Seeks Precedent

O'Brien's lawyer, Victor G. Hanson of Detroit, said he hoped the lawsuit would result in a precedent to protect players in organized pro football in the future.

Under NFL contracts players usually do not get paid until they have made the squad or the regular season has begun.

Hanson said the Lions in serving notice on O'Brien told him he had failed to "demonstrate sufficient skill and capacity."

"This defamed him to the extent that no other team wanted him whereas the truth of the matter was that he was hurt and couldn't play," Hanson said.

Lions President William Clay Ford declined comment until he could examine the suit.

Cardinals Place Minnie Minoso On Disabled List

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals placed outfielder Minnie Minoso, out with a skull fracture, on the disabled list Monday for 30 days, opening a place on the club's 25-man roster.

A club spokesman said Minoso's place eventually would be filled but the club had no immediate plans for bringing up a player from the minors. Trade talks doubtless will be renewed.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has approved the move. Charley James, a right-handed hitter, and Doug Clemens, batting from the left side, have been taking Minoso's place. Both are hitting for high averages, but the Redbirds were counting heavily in the 39-year-old Cuban for badly needed right-handed power to keep the club in the pennant race over the long haul.

Minoso was expected to be out at least six weeks. He also suffered a fracture of a bone in the right wrist, which has been placed in a cast.

The fiery veteran, who ran headlong into the concrete left field wall Friday night, showed slight improvement Monday, as he usually does not get paid until they was able to take solid food for the first time.

Mets Suspend Southpaw Miller

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Mets announced Monday that Bob Miller, a left-handed pitcher recently optioned to Syracuse, has been suspended for failing to report to the International League team.

Miller was acquired last week from Cincinnati, along with third baseman Cliff Cook in a deal that sent third baseman Don Zimmer to the Reds.

"Naturally Miller was disappointed in not getting an immediate chance with the Mets," said Tom Meany, the club publicist, "but he gave no indication he would not report to the Syracuse club. He probably decided to visit Varun. Garrow was scheduled at Seymour. Bonduel, Landstad at Black Creek reporting.

and Hofa Park at Seymour. The games will be rescheduled at a later date.

"Of course, the suspension will be lifted as soon as he does report."

Trading Heavy On Wall Street

Early Gains Lost In Stock Market On Large Selling

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market carried its rally higher but some gains had been whittled early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 2.90 to 240.40 with industrials ahead 4.10, rails 1.10 and utilities 2.00. Trading lagged behind the 5.90 million-share pace of Monday's hectic session but the ticker tape trailed transactions almost from the opening bell.

Brokers agreed Monday's action was a selling climax but were being cautious about accepting it as the one that would put the market on a sustained upward course.

Gains ranged from fractions to about 2 points with a few wider movers.

President Kennedy's order for Marines to land in Thailand apparently had little effect on the market.

Steels were slightly higher following a report that the Kennedy administration has decided against endorsing antitrust legislation aimed at the steel industry.

IBM was up 6 points after having been ahead 7 1/2.

Mail order-retails, aircrafts, electronics, utilities, nonferrous metals, chemicals, oils and tobacco advanced. Motors and rails were mixed.

Sears Roebuck and Woolworth gained a point or so. Boeing added 1 1/2. AT&T advanced 2 1/4.

Du Pont up 2, Xerox up 2 and Polaroid up 5 were off a little from earlier highs.

Republic Steel was up 1/2 and Use your head when you shop for a "new-size" car

The air is filled with claims about the so-called "new-size" cars—the ones that finally caught up with Rambler Classic's size, but with little else.

Just use your head and you'll discover sizeable differences. Slide into the front seat and you'll find much more headroom in the Rambler Classic (actually more than Cadillac!). The extra room for shoulders and hips adds up to space for six well-padded 6-footers.

You get better performance, and you can feel it. That's because Rambler is ahead in both horsepower and passing power. Don't worry about economy; any Rambler owner will tell you how he saves on gasoline.

If you care about quality, think this over. Rambler has Double-Safety Brakes—of all other U. S. cars only Cadillac has a similar system. Only Rambler gives you Deep-Dip rustproofing up to the roof.

Only Rambler spares you the expense of replacing rusted-out mufflers and tailpipes—Rambler's are Ceramic-Armored.

That's just a taste of all the facts you can get at your dealer's. He has a handy car-comparison X-Ray Book that's free. Makes it easy to use your head.

JOIN THE TRADE PARADE TO RAMBLER
213,217 owners of other makes have traded to Rambler in just 12 months. Sales are soaring, so you can make even bigger savings right now.

EARLY AMERICAN a warm hearted and comfortable style

... exclusively at Wichmann's — 1776 Bedroom Collection

Night Table $39.95 Chairback Bed $49.95 Chest $69.00 Corner Chest $69.00 Bachelor Chest $69.00 Double Dresser $89.00 Mirror $29.00

The 1776 Collection is one of the most beautiful and versatile Early American groupings available today.

The tasteful shape, the fitted drawer fronts, the graceful curves and the artful execution of the turned posts give 1776 an air of expensive elegance that is not reflected in its price.

All case tops are surfaced with matching laminated plastic that resists marring, heat, cigarette burns, alcohol, water and fingernail polish remover. All pieces have dustproofing under each drawer and all drawers are fully dovetailed, both front and back; center guided to glide smoothly. Heavy drawer pulls are in antique brass.
